LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. R. G. Lee went to Greenville Tuesday to visit her mother.

Mrs. Ellie Brooks Jones is the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. M. Smith.

Mr. W. D. Allen of Chappell was very cordially greeted by his friends here the first of the week.

Rev. P. P. Blalock will preach in the Presbyterian church here Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock.

Mr. Ira Armfield, Mr. T. C. Sterrett and Mr. J. C. Holstein of Saluda were visitors in Edgefield Friday.

Miss Sophie Dobson left yesterday morning for Greensboro, N. C., to spend several weeks with her brother, Mr. C. R. Dobson.

Hon. M. P. Wells came home from Columbia to spend the week-end with his family, returning Monday night to his post of duty.

The Stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson Tuesday and left a dear little girl to be a permanent dweller in their home.

Mrs. B. B. Jones returned this morning from a visit to Spartanburg, bringing with her Miss Letitia Fairy, who is always a welcomed visitor in Edgefield.

An important meeting of the farmers of the county will be held in the Court House Saturday next at 12 o'clock. Several hundred farmers should attend.

Mrs. M. C. Turner of Greenwood is a welcomed visitor in Edgefield today. Her friends regret that the intervals between her visits to her old home are so long.

Miss Ida Lou Parkman returned to her home last Saturday in the Elmwood section after spending several weeks in Edgefield with her sister, Mrs. W. L. Bryan.

Hon. F. B. Gary of Abbeville will preside at the March term of court which will convene the first Monday. The petit and grand juries will be drawn next Tuesday.

The name of Mr. W. P. Yonce was inadvertently omitted from the list of directors of the Peoples Bank last week. Mr. Yonce has been a director from the time the bank was organized.

A splendid set of books of literary gems will be in the order which will be installed in the library. A list of the new books will be published and will include the best of popular fiction.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyon are receiving the congratulations of their friends over the coming of little Frank, Jr., into their home. They now have a little girl, their eldest, and a little son.

Mr. John Hollingsworth and Mr. Diomed Hollingsworth have returned from a sojourn of two months in Florida, where they have been on a hunting and fishing expedition, spending much of the time camping. They enjoyed immensely the unique experience.

Hon. S. T. Williams has been sick at his home with influenza for the past ten days. He came home from Columbia sick Sunday, February 5, and has been confined to his bed ever since. We are glad to report however, that the worst is over and Mr. Williams is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Preston Wright is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Norris, this being her first visit to Edgefield since she went as a bride early in November to make her home in Cincinnati. She has been very affectionately greeted by her Edgefield friends.

Dr. R. G. Lee announced Sunday morning to his congregation that he had received a call from the First Baptist church of Chester, but that he had not yet reached a decision as to whether he would accept the call. The people here are eagerly awaiting his decision, praying all the while for him to remain in Edgefield.

Keep your eyes and ears open. Good times are just ahead.
YONCE & MOONEY.

The Civic League will hold its regular meeting in the library Monday afternoon, February 21st, at four o'clock. The members are urged to show their interest in this great organization by attending the monthly meetings.

Miss Kate Samuel and Miss Ruth Lyon went to Atlanta Monday to buy a spring stock of ladies' ready-to-wear goods for the store which they will soon open in Edgefield. They are both experienced buyers and know how to select the cream of the stylish ready-to-wear for women. Watch for their announcement later.

Clemson Boys Will Meet.

All Clemson boys of the county will meet in the Court House Saturday, February 19th, at 3 p. m. for the purpose of talking over a few things for the good of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State. This meeting has been called by B. R. Tillman, '96; A. L. Brunson, Jr., '06; A. B. Carwile, '16; W. H. Mays, '19. All ex-Clemson men are urged to be present.

Boll Weevils Living.

Mr. W. P. Gordon brought a bottle containing about a dozen living boll weevils to The Advertiser office yesterday. They came from the farm of Mr. W. F. West, and doubtless on every farm in the county can be found living boll weevils, which means they will attack cotton early this year.

Cut your acreage in half. Don't plant cotton merely to feed boll weevils on. Plant food crops instead.

Store Robbed.

Burglars entered the store of Hon. S. T. Williams last Sunday night and carried away several hundred dollars worth of groceries, shoes and dry goods. Not satisfied with taking merchandise the intruders stole a rifle from the store and also the keys to Mr. Williams' gin house and other outbuildings. The guilty parties should be apprehended and punished. It matters not who they are, such outlawry should not be tolerated. Mr. Williams was sick in bed at the time.

Purchases Interest in Grocery Firm.

Mr. Roy Smith has purchased an interest in the grocery firm of Satcher & Nixon, one of the leading grocery firms in Augusta. Mr. Smith is now teaching the Cooper school near Sweetwater church and will not become personally identified with the firm until the close of his school. This firm will henceforth be composed of three Edgefield young men, all of whom are energetic, ambitious and possess sterling qualities. Success to them!

Unprecedented Bargains.

Mr. Rubenstein takes two full pages of The Advertiser this week to tell the people of Edgefield county of the special sale which will begin at his store Friday, February 18. The list of bargains which he announces is unprecedented in this section. Read what he says concerning reasonable offerings in every department of his large store. He has employed Mr. E. B. Holt and Mr. Ory Berman of Greenville to manage this special sale for him. This large double-page advertisement contains some special offerings for certain days of the sale that should attract a large number of people from a great distance. Mr. Rubenstein stands behind every statement contained in this advertisement.

Solicitor Callison Coming.

In a letter to Clerk of Court W. B. Cogburn, Solicitor T. C. Callison states that he will be in Edgefield Saturday, February 19, for the purpose of getting everything in readiness for the March term of court. Any and all witnesses who may desire to confer with the solicitor before the convening of court should come to Edgefield Saturday. All magistrates should also send all of their official records to the clerk of court by that date so the solicitor can inspect them and have everything in readiness for the March term of court. Solicitor Callison stated in the campaign that if elected he would visit each county seat before the convening of court and familiarize himself with the business of the court so as to conduct it wisely and with dispatch. We trust that Mr. Callison will meet with the fullest co-operation in his efforts to conduct the people's business. It would be well also for grand jurors to have a conference with the solicitor during this official visit to Edgefield.

Metropolitan Glee Club is Coming.

The fourth Lyceum number will be presented in the Opera House on February 28th, which is Monday. The attraction. The Metropolitan Glee Club, is one of the highest priced attractions in America today and has the distinction of being one of the few companies booked for a third return engagement. They carry 100 per cent rating which means they have left a delighted audience at each place without an exception. The verdict is "the best yet" wherever they go.

About the middle of April we will have a strong company of Hawaiians. This will be the last for the season and we shall be glad to have a full house for these two fine companies.

Attend Farmers' Meeting.

This is a time when the greatest cooperation is necessary. We might say, as old Benjamin Franklin said in the olden days: "We must all hang together or be assured that we shall be hanged separately." We should say: "We must reduce our acreage together or our acreage will reduce us separately."

Mr. Farmer, if you care anything at all about standing for yourself and working with your fellow-farmers come out to the farmers meeting to be held in the Court House, Saturday, February 19th, at noon. We are fortunate in having B. R. Tillman, one of the best farmers in the county, as head of the County Cotton Association. If we shall give Mr. Tillman the proper support, great things will be accomplished.

Miss Ethel DeLoach Hostess For Civic League Party.

Miss Ethel DeLoach was hostess at a most enjoyable progressive conversation party Friday afternoon of last week.

The attractive home was fragrant with masses of spring flowers.

The guests were given a list of topics: the Library, Civic League, Our Town, Housekeeping, Gardening, Flowers, Men, Women, Fruit Cake I Baked, My First Auto Ride, The Man I Wouldn't Marry and My Hobby. "Dates" were then made with each other for these topics and much merriment ensued, as different views on the subjects were expressed.

After the "dates" were filled a delicious course of chicken salad on lettuce hearts, pickles, crackers and ice tea was served.

Post Office Burglarized.

Although Edgefield is something like 100 years old, Monday night was the first time that expert yeggmen have made an "official" visit to this place. About two o'clock Monday night the postoffice was forcibly entered and the safe dynamited. First the burglars broke into the shop of Mr. A. L. Kemp on Jeter Street and secured a hammer and other tools which were used in forcing open the door of the post office and wrecking the safe. The safe contained less than $100 in cash and about $1,500 in stamps and other supplies, all of which was carried away by the burglars. It appears that there were three parties to the crime, two standing guard on the Opera House corner and the Kemp Grocery store corner on Main street while the third did the devilment inside. There were two policemen on duty Monday night, Mr. Douglas Leonard and Mr. Eddie Whately. The regular policeman, Mr. Jack Whately, was at home with his sick wife and child. At the time the first explosion occurred the policemen were warming by the fire in the club rooms of the American Legion club. They at once rushed down stairs to make investigation, and as soon as they reached the street they were fired upon by the two sentinels on the opposite side of the street. About eight shots were exchanged between the officers and the burglars but none took effect. As soon as the work of the man inside the postoffice building was completed all of them made their escape down the street by the Presbyterian church, proving themselves to be expert runners. They left no clue nor trace that would point to their identity. The postmaster, Mr. C. M. Mellichamp, at once notified the postal inspector of this district.

Later: Responding at once to the notice of Mr. Mellichamp, the inspector visited the post office yesterday and after a careful examination has placed the government's loss at $2,184.37 as a result of the work of the burglars. No clue has yet been found that would lead to their identity.
